

Urban nature

FINN
GURU

The heart of a Finnish town is green! This tour leads you to the seaside scenery in Espoo Laajalahti, taking you deep into the bosom of urban nature.

GUIDE: Elisa | TRANSFERS: Included | MEALS: Coffee and snack

During the short transfer you will get a taste of what's to come while watching the scenic seaside views and listening to your guide Elisa's stories about Finnish nature and lifestyle.

When arriving to Laajalahti you will take a leisurely walk through the seaside nature. The air is fresh, and breathing is easy, and the picturesque scenery will still your mind. It's hard to believe you are still in a city!

Finnish archipelago is unparalleled and some of its adorable little islands are right outside the capital area. By crossing an old wooden walk bridge you will get to investigate the Tarvo island and enjoy the unique environment.

Your urban nature tour will culminate in the atelier-home of a famous Finnish painter Akseli Gallen-Kallela. The Tarvaspää estate includes the artist's home and a peat covered seaside sauna. You will end your tour in the coffeehouse of Tarvaspää enjoying a cup of coffee and a little savoury snack.

Welcome to urban nature!

AVAILABILITY: Snowless seasons

GROUP SIZE: 1-9 people

DURATION: 4 hours